Congressman-elect Scott Murphy Thanks the People of New York's 20th Congressional District, Looks Forward to Working on Their Behalf

Glens Falls, NY— On Friday, after receiving a phone call from Assemblyman Jim Tedisco conceding the race, Congressman-elect Scott Murphy issued the following statement:

“I am honored and humbled to be going to Washington to represent the families of New York's 20th Congressional District.

“First and foremost, I wish to thank the voters in this election for putting their faith and trust in me. I can't wait to get to work on their behalf in Washington.

“I thank Assemblyman Jim Tedisco for his kind words today. It was an honor to compete with him in this hard-fought campaign. I look forward to working with him to move Upstate in the right direction.

“My thanks to Senator Kirsten Gillibrand for her extraordinary leadership and support for my campaign. Living up to her example of honest representation and hard work is something I will aspire to do every day.

“I'd like to thank President Obama and Vice President Biden for supporting my campaign and for their inspiring leadership for our country. I can't wait to start working with the President to deliver the urgently needed recovery funds to Upstate New York.

“My thanks as well to Governor Patterson and to the New York Congressional delegation, especially Congressman Paul Tonko who spent so many days with me on the campaign trail. I'm honored to be joining the outstanding New York delegation in the House.

“I look forward to rolling up my sleeves in Washington to bring jobs, opportunity, and prosperity back to Upstate New York.”
